Dress Code for Participants:

Since we want to present a Christian testimony for all in attendance, the following dress standards apply.

All Sparks, T&T clubbers and all coaches are required to wear long pants, a team shirt and tennis shoes. The pants can be slacks, windpants, sweatpants or jeans. NO SHORTS! The team shirt may be an Awana shirt or a special shirt your team has purchased for the event. (If your church has standards about young ladies wearing pants, they are to dress according to your churches dress standards.)

Line judges are to wear long dark pants and tennis shoes. NO jeans for line judges. An officials shirt will be provided at the games.

Other staff can wear long pants or dresses and preferably an Awana uniform.

There will be a concession stand at the Sparks-a-rama and AwanaGames which will provide a light meal, snacks and drinks. Proceeds from the concession stand help provide support for young people to attend short term mission projects.
